GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

That the turf glory and success won by the horses bearing the famous copper with silver sleeves of the late Marcus Daly may be handed down to his son-in-law, James W. Gerard, Jr., will be the wish of turfmen of all classes, says the Sun of December 24. In connection with the advent of Mr. Gerard, announced today for the first time, it is worthy of note that horsemen always have a warm welcome for any man whose coming may be of benefit to the sport. In this respect they seem to be and are the soul of unselfishness. The famous Bitter Root stud of Montana, established by Mr. Daly at the expense of much money and care, was dispersed so completely on his death that it does not seem probable that Mr. Gerard will begin his career as a turfman with any of the sons or daughters of that famous establishment, but this is not impossible. The mere announcement of his debut as a turfman already has stirred a thousand memories of the successes of the Daly horses. Racegoers are talking of the triumphs of Tammany; of the Suburban winner, Montana; of the Futurity winner, Ogden; of that great sprinter, Isidor, and last, and greater than all of them, the fleet Hamburg. Turfmen readily will recall the mystery which surrounded the purchase of Hamburg by Mr. Daly from John Madden at a price never announced with any degree of definiteness, but said to be upward of $50,000, a price greater than ever had been paid in this country for a horse in training. There was no secret about the sale, but the identity of the purchaser was shrouded in mystery until about a month after it had been made. When it became known that Mr. Daly was the possessor of the colt, that had passed into retirement as a two-year-old with the championship beyond dispute, he fas warmly congratulated. Hamburg's racing career was closed at the end of his three-year-old season, and only as a three-year-old did he race in Mr. Daly's colors. His starts in this year were the Belmont Stakes, in which he was beaten because of lack of condition, and the

THOROUGHBREDS SOLD.

The sale of the Fair brood mares, the St. Simon stallion, St. Avonicus and the Mallowmot Farm yearlings at the Occidental Horse Exchange December 17 surpassed expectations in point of attendance and prices realized for the mares, though it was thought St. Avonicus and the Mallowmot yearlings would bring larger sums.

The bidding for St. Avonicus was started at $2,500 by a representative of E. J. Arnold of St. Louis, and progressed merrily until he was knocked down to the bid of Caesar Young, who also purchased a couple of brood mares and a yearling or two.

A new Richmond in the breeding field is S. S. Eakle of Williams, Colusa County, a young gentleman of wealth and position in his county and a neighbor of J. S. Gibson, breeder of Josie G., February, Narra G., J. Boggs, Bloomsbury, etc. He secured I Declare for $150 and Sally Sensible for $125.

E. J. Arnold was quite a heavy purchaser, through a representative, he getting Callatine for $900, Janet N. (dam of Crescendo, Bellicoso, Wandering Nun and Dolce) for $1,000, Pow Wow for $500 and Shimoga (half sister to Sain) for $2,000, Barney Schreiber being a contender.

"Ab" Stemler secured the good looking Ray of Gold for $1,750 after a lively tilt with Arnold's representative. Lee Blasingame got a bargain in Princess at $250, since a yearling from her brought $1,600 a little over a week ago, and C. T. Boots takes the record breaker, Lucretia Borgia, back to the farm where she first saw the light, and also bought Centenella, Miss Truth, Phoebe, Rose of Ormonde (by the unbeaten Ormonde), St. Kristine and Ursula.

Following are the details of the sale:

After his easy race on Wednesday he will be pointed for the $10,000 Burns Handicap, which event his owners think they have cinched to death. This one, like Rey el Santa Anita, will make all the eastern horses look small. Turfites, here is a chance to make a BARREL OF MONEY. The odds on this trick will be from 20 to 30 to 1 in the opening betting.

Montanic, off well in motion, showed the most early speed and was at home in the going, but had to be hustled along at the end to stall off Stratton. Winner—Ch. c, by St. Carlo—Sunlit (trained by H. E. Rowell).

Went to post at 2:05. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. St. Sever was given a lucky start and indulged Pat Oran to the stretch, where he went to the front without urging Pat Oran displayed useful speed and stamina and was particularly favored by the going. Estado got away badly and closed up steadily under extreme pressure throughout and was easily second best. Intrepido and Grey Fox went well.

Winner—B. g, by Golden Garter—Ricardo (trained by E. Carey).

Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Jarretiere d'Or is steadily improving and very fit, was skillfully reserved to the stretch where he made good in game fashion. Golden Light was excessively used in disposing of the pacemaker and ran a fast and game race. Ben Mac Dhui was forced into the deep going, but closed up strongly at the end and can beat this kind when fit. Sea Lion tired after forcing the pace for five furlongs and runs as if stale.

Overweights—Jarretiere d'Or, 1 pound.

Time, 1:14.

Winner—B. g, by Apache—Juanita (trained by F. McMahon).

Went to post at 2:58. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Ned Dennis was saved to the stretch where he came along with a rush and wore the tiring pacemakers down and won drawing away. Edinborough, favored by the weights and going, was used up in racing after Amasa and turned wide and was swerving badly in the stretch under a poor ride. Bullman was hard at work on The Weaver throughout and the colt put up a game effort. Amasa tired after making the running to the stretch. Arthur Ray ran a dull race and can do better, but was probably short. Constable is out of place in sprints.

Winner—Ch. g, by Duke of Norfolk—Carmen, by Wildidle (trained by W. Singleton).

Went to post at 3:31. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Duke of York forced the pace throughout and outjumped, outraced and outstayed his field decisively. Crest has improved, was the only other serious contender, but lost much ground at the stretch hurdle and will probably reverse this running later on. Dagmar was closing up fast at the end. Mike Rice fenced badly and, when apparently sure of third place, balked at the stretch hurdle. Tulare fell away at the end o the first mile.

Winner—B. f, by Lettoon—Anvolee (trained by D. A. Honig).

Went to post at 3:58. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Antolee, lucky and favored with clear sailing, finished fast through the stretch and won going away. Greyfeld got away well, was always prominent and held on well under a vigorous ride, showing great improvement. Blackthorn, probably not quite keyed up for a long journey, was tiring at the end under a particularly weak ride. I. O. U. closed a big gap from a bad start. Platonius forced the face for six furlongs and stuck to his work gamely at the end. He raced in the deep going throughout. Larry Wilt fell away after going a half mile.

Antolee, show, 7 to 10. Greyfeld, show, 8 to 5. Blackthorn, show, evens.

Winner—Ch. f, by Balgowan—Parolee (trained by G. Covington).

Went to post at 4:23. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Sylvia Talbot set a fast pace and came away gamely from Honiton's strong stretch challenge and was best in the going. Honiton was handicapped by the slow going, but ran a high class race and can probably reverse this running on a fast track. Sir Hugh was always outrun and was outclassed by the first two. Alice Cary went a fast half.

Corrected weights—Maud Muller, 107.

Overweights—Honiton, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. m, by Kosciusko—Elsie B. (trained by T. P. Lloyd).

Went to post at 2:04. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won handily; second driving. Ada Russell was much the best and had to be to win. Practically left, Rooney took her the overland route and, coming fast in the stretch run, won with something in reserve. By George had no mishaps and ran his race. Little Rita was off in motion and did her best. Nannie Goodrich quit when the pinch came. The others had no chance from where they got off. Nannie J. ran the entire distance with part of the barrier wrapped around her.

Scratched—36821 Simon, 117; 36824 Bastile, 113; 36788 Tom Middleton, 111; 36825 Dr. Lovejoy, 106; 36808 Omelia, 104.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Wyola began slowly, but picked up her field while going around the far turn and, coming fast in the final eighth, got up in the closing strides. Marcy had a tough journey, was pinched off at the stretch turn, but came again and finished stoutly. Eleven Bells, favored by her light impost, ran a good race, but tired slightly when the pinch came. Little Emmy quit in the stretch run. Fairy Dell did not run her race and can do much better.

Scratched—36822^{2} Lady Midas, 104.

Winner—Br. f, by Bassetlaw—Vice Versa (trained by J. Stephens).

Went to post at 3:28. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Crisscross, off well in motion, went to the front early and swung to the center of the track at the stretch bend losing some ground, but came fast in the stretch run, winning with something to spare. Suave hung to the rail all the way saving ground, but could not withstand the winner's bid. Rotha got off well in motion and ran a fair race. March, all tangled up at the start, received a bungling ride.

Scratched—36825 Pat Garrett, 104; 36824 Juniper, 104; 36822 Margaret Hoffman, 99.

Winner—B. c, by Bob Tucker—Nellie Belle (trained by F. H. Kesinger).

Went to post at 3:55. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Enos took Frank Kesinger to the front at flagfall, and from that time on the horse was never in trouble and won going away with something in reserve. Boittie caught Pearl Mendel tiring in the stretch run and had no trouble in securing second place. Quincy came very fast in the final eighth. Pearl Mendel weakened badly when the real pinch came. GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Realization Stakes and the Brighton Cup, both of which events he won with ridiculous ease. At the close of his three-year-old season he was as sound as a dollar, but Mr. Daly believed him to be an uquine marvel and thought it would be best to retire him to the stud rather than to continue to race him. If Mr. Gerard lives up to the standard of sportmanship steadily adhered to by his father-in-law he will be a valuable acquisition to the turf indeed, and worthy to have the good fortune of owning another Hamburg.
